Guidelines to Authors

Journal of Plant Process and function

ISSN: 2322-2727 (Print)
ISSN: 2383- 3688 (on line)

Welcome the articles/ original research papers/ Manuscript from the Research scholars. Academicians as full paper in the field of Plant physiology, Plant Ecophysiology, Plant molecular biology and Plant biotechnology with physiological approaches. Papers submitted by the authors/ co-authors must be original in nature and no parts of the submitted paper are not currently sent to any local or international journal.

Manuscripts should be submitted online to the journal at: http://www.jispp.ir .Once a manuscript has been accepted for publication, it will undergo language copy editing, typesetting, and reference validation in order to provide the highest publication quality possible.
Journal of Plant Process and Function will publish only Original Research Articles. Review, Case reports and Letter to the Editor are not accepted. Research work or all articles should be submitted in English language. Other language will not be accepted .

Access policy
All published paper in Plant Process and Function are freely available as PDF at www.jispp.ir.

Original Research Articles
Research Articles must be typed and all pages are to be numbered. Title page must include full name of the author, phone number, mobile number and e-mail Id and present address. The abstract state that the scope of research and point out materials and methods, findings and conclusion. The abstract must be in complete sentences, verbs should be clear and abstract should be written in the past tense. Five to ten key words will be provide index reference should be listed .

Introduction
Introduction must be in clear & stating that reasons for carry out of research work, background regarding the research nature of hypothesis should be clearly stated. The introduction should be understandable to reaches from various science disciplines.

Materials and Methods
Materials and methods do not refer to common place statistical test. It must be enough to allow experiments to be reproduced. If any previous published research work can also be cited and notification should be mentioning clearly. Subheadings should be used.

Results
Results of research articles or manuscripts should be present with clarity and precise .Previous publisher's findings should be written in present tense. Results should be explained. Discussion, interpretation should be included in the results but should be put into the discussion section .

Discussion
Discussion part of the research paper includes the sub heading, significance of the results related to research work. In some cases Result and Discussion might be together .

Acknowledgments
This section should be thanks to people, granting body, university departments, college departments should be in a brief manner .

Tables

Tables and chart in the research paper should be kept minimum and simple. It should be double line space including the heading and foot note. Table should be presented in text .

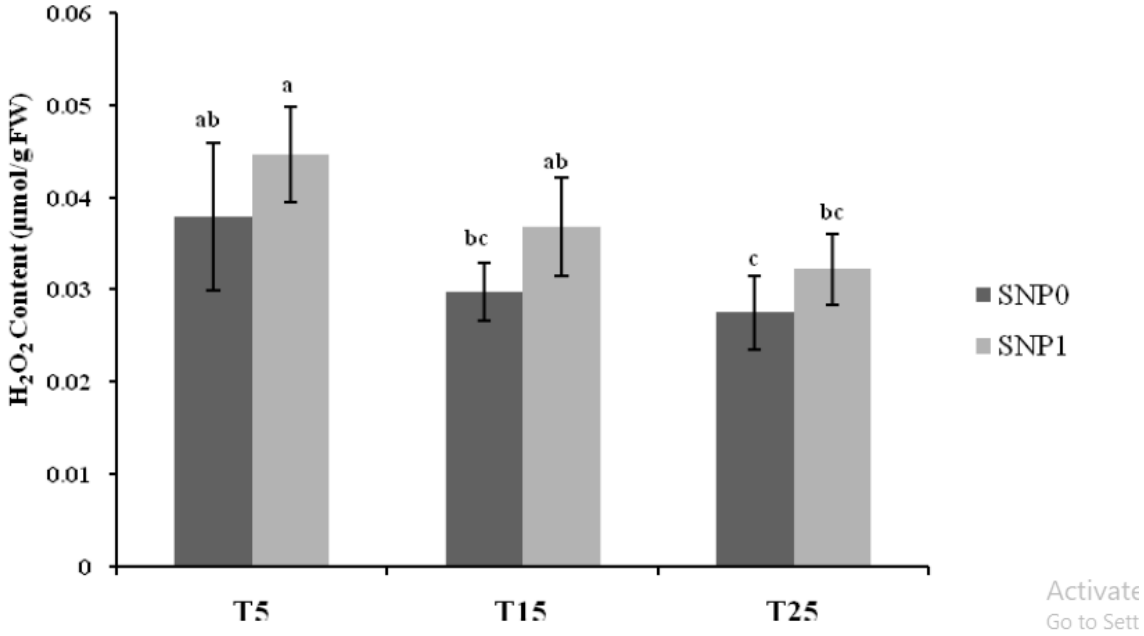

Figure legends

Figures should be presented in the text similar to the following example. Axis (X and Y) should be Times New Roman 10, Bold .

Since the Journal is published online, the author can present the images in color with suitable contrast.

References

In the text, a reference identified by means of an author‘s name should be followed by the date of the reference in parentheses. When there are more than two authors, only the first author‘s name should be mentioned, followed by ’et al.,‘. In the event that an author cited has had two or more works published during the same year, the reference, both in the text and in the reference list, should be identified by a lower case letter like’a‘ and ’b‘ after the date to distinguish the works .

Examples of references in the text

One Author: (Weston, 1996)
Two Authors: (Schopfer and Plachy, 1984)
Three or more Authors: (Kruse et al., 2000)

Paper title [Times new roman and 14 Bold]

Full author names [Times new roman and 11 Bold]
Full affiliation mailing addresses, [Times new roman and 11 Bold]
Phone and fax number,
E-mail addresses
Author for correspondence
Abstract [Times new roman and 10 Bold]

Introduction [Times new Roman and 11 Bold]

This section should be brief described the background and aim(s) of the work [Text 10 point with times new roman]

Materials and Method [Times new Roman and 11 Bold]

This section need to describe research materials and method. [Text 10 point with times new roman]

Results and Discussion [Times new Roman and 11 Bold]

This section need to describe experimental results and analysis result. [Text 10 point with times new roman]

Conclusion [Times new Roman and 11 Bold]

This section need to include overall full original work. [Text 10 point with times new roman]

Acknowledgments [Times new Roman and 11 Bold]

Acknowledgments should be included at the end of the paper and before the references. It may also include supporting grants, private money, and etc. [Text 10 point with times new roman]

References [Times new Roman and 11 Bold]

References section need to write down like [1] Authors name, paper title, journal name, vol., no., year, page no., references should be cited within the text in number wise. [Reference text 10 point with times new roman]

Plagiarism Policy
This journal aims to publish original high quality research work. Submission of manuscript to this journal indicates that the study has not been published anywhere or not been submitted elsewhere for publication. If author(s) are using any part of published paper (in English or any other language), they should give proper reference or in any case, if required they should get permission from the previous publisher or copyright holder (whichever is suitable). Plagiarized manuscripts would not be considered for publication. If plagiarism is found in any published paper after internal investigation, a letter would be immediately sent to all the authors, their affiliated institutes and funding agency, if applied and subsequently the paper will be retracted .
